VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Property is located only about one and one-quarter miles from the city and near school. This is one of the best properties in the vicinity to make money on. Owing to its location, the highest prices are always realized from the produce. The income from the dairy alone exceeds $2,000.00. With the farm will be sold all the personal property, including stock, tools and produce. There is probably over $3,000.00 worth of personal property on the place. Good apple orchard, also a large sugar orchard. This property has to be seen to be appreciated and will not remain on the market long at the price we offer it, which is $7,000.00. ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

D. W. Ryan ascended Mt. Mansfield November 9, and found the snow four inches deep at the top.
J. W. Babcock of Wisconsin, just rejected to Congress, was born in Swanton. The Babcock home place was a stone house in the rear of what is now Merchants Row and is occupied at the present time by H. F. Martin & Son as a tinshop.

Major Josiah Grout, administrator of the estate of the late General W. W. Grout, has paid the creditors in the estate their first dividend of six cents. The equity in the Grout farm at Kirby has been purchased by Capt. George O. Ford, who has been for so many years the manager of the farm.

A petition signed by several citizens of the town of Bolton was presented to the school directors asking them to have the morning exercises held in No. 5 school discontinued. The exercises consisted of Bible reading and reciting the Lord's prayer by the teacher, Miss Barrows. After duly considering the matter they decided to make no change.

Mrs. Will Carleton, wife of the poet, who died suddenly at the home in Brooklyn Thursday, was born in Halifax, Vt., July 25, 1847, and many of her relatives now reside in Vermont. She was the daughter of Nathaniel Niles and Mary Fish Niles. She spent her girlhood days in Vermont. For several years she was a missionary in Burma among the Karens and returned from that country in 1880. In 1882 she was married to William Carleton, the poet and author. Mrs. Carleton was prominent in all good works.

The final examinations for the employees of the transportation department of the Central Vermont railway are now being held and it is expected that all the examination papers will be handed in in two weeks. The examinations are being conducted at Montpelier, St. Albans, White River Junction, St. John, P. Q., and Burlington. An employee of the road fails to reach the required average he will be given another chance in a short time after he has been examined the first time. If he fails on the second examination he is dismissed from the employment of the company, although he may take another examination when he is in a condition to be re-examined. The holding of these examinations is a new departure by the Central Vermont road. All engineers, firemen, brakemen and ticket operators must take the examinations. These employees have been receiving instructions from some one of the railroad officials for several weeks, and they are in a position to make a creditable showing.

Proper Evening Dress For Men.

Speaking of dress suits and tuxedos brings to mind the frequent violation of a positive rule, says the November Men and Women. Many men will wear a black tie with full evening dress. That is wrong. The collar must be a standing one and the tie white. An unwritten law, however, prescribes a black tie for tuxedo wear. Double breasted white waistcoats are also frequently seen with this latter style, when the vest should really be of the same material as the coat. A white waistcoat, single or double breasted, may be worn with full evening dress.
